Alpha Online

Following the success of our current Zoom Alpha Course, which finishes in March, we have decided to run a new course to start after Easter.

If you have big questions about life or faith, Alpha Online is a wonderful opportunity to explore these topics with a small group of people without having to leave the comfort of your own home! Each week, after a short talk there will be an opportunity to hear what others think about the topic for the evening and for you to have your say.

Alpha runs for ten thought-provoking weekly sessions, following an introduction to the course on:

Tuesday 20th April from 7.30 - 8.30pm

which will include some impressions from people who have recently completed Alpha.

There is no cost and no obligation, so why not join us for the introduction session before deciding whether Alpha is for you?

For more information or for the Zoom link which will be sent to you a week before the introduction evening, please contact:
